Please note: Generally, the registration commences at 9:30 am on both days. The workshop begins at 10:00 am and ends approximately at 5:00 pm. Some workshops may begin earlier or later on either day. Please check the letter and email that is sent to you regarding the workshop carefully.

Those who attend the workshop and are interested in knowing how they performed in the UMAT Trial Exam in relation to their peers will be provided with the following: their raw score, their percentile score in comparison with the nationwide UMAT cohort and their expected UMAT score. If interested, they will also be provided with an indication of their strengths and weaknesses and their likelihood of being offered a university place. Our feedback indicates that students find this useful in their attempts to improve their performance.
